MURPHY, the Jeweler.

After the fight comes the sweets of victory. Last night at the M. E. Church in West Third the members of the Mite Society had a royal good time, the Reds banqueting the Blues. It is not necessary to say that the spread was of the best the season afforded. When the fight for members began between the Reds and Blues the society numbered 17. After the contest it had been increased to 66.

Although he has been in ill health for some time his death was unexpected. He was down on Second street yesterday and was working until a late hour last night.

Is an appetizing sweet pickle relish. Excellent with meats, hot or cold. Its only fault—it is so good you're apt to eat too much. Order a 25c jar, and if you do not like it we will return your money.

A CARD.

It has been rumored that, because of disability, I would resign my position as night watchman. This is not correct. It is true that I've had the misfortune to be sick for a time, but that is well nigh past, and during the period I promptly employed a good and efficient substitute who has seen to it that the interests of my employers have not suffered. It is my expectation and purpose to resume my duties in the early future.

JOHN D. ROE.

LED OFF HIS HORSE OFF!

Dangers of Hitching on to Uncle Sam's Traveling Show

Brother Frank Clift rode up to the Postoffice the other morning and in the absence of a hitching-post utilized the rear part of brother Muse's mail wagon for the purpose while he entered the Postoffice lobby for his mail.

When the rural router came out and entered his Postoffice on wheels he did not notice the tail-end attachment, and with a git-there, Delmar, he gaily started on his twenty-five mile circuit, dispensing cheer and comfort to some and sorrow and tears to others, entirely innocent of the fact that he was carrying, or leading rather, Colonel Clift's horse, and not until he had reached a point some distance beyond the L. and N. Depot when the led horse became obstreperous and broke loose did Uncle Sam's servant become aware that something was wrong with the tail-end of his cart.

When the Colonel reappeared his conveyance, as it were, was non est, and where to be found could not at that moment be solved. After expressing himself in thoughts, if not in words, in a very pronounced manner, he concluded to await events, and by doing so save himself worry and bother of mind. In course of time the Colonel recovered his property, and he has since made a solemn vow that never in the future will he attempt to attach any of his property to that of Uncle Sam's. It don't pay.

"It is the law of American politics that no man can make himself a candidate for President, and no man can prevent himself from being a candidate for President." From a statement made by the late James G. Blaine.

WHAT Senator CANTRILL didn't say about GOVERNOR BECKHAM couldn't be constructed out of the contents of the Standard Dictionary.

THE Carlisle Mercury is thirty-six years old; but nobody would think it from the youthful vigor with which it treats all public matters.

A CHICAGO Alderman has just been sent to prison for one year because he bought votes at the last election. If such punishment was inflicted on Louisville politicians for the same offense, the Jefferson County Jail would have to be enlarged.

A MAN out in Michigan wrote to the Attorney General of New York, inquiring whether electrocution is an effective punishment for the crime of murder. The Attorney General in reply stated, as far as he was aware, the men that suffered that punishment would never again commit murder or any other crime.

FOR the reason that Kentucky is almost destitute of Children's Homes and Orphan Asylums, hundreds of her poor children have for years been cared for by the more enterprising state of Ohio. In view of this fact the recent order from Frankfort, that no more children from the Ohio institutions shall be adopted in Kentucky, is in the nature of base ingratitude.

THERE appears to be a desire on the part of some to preserve the old stone stairway in the present building in case a new Capitol is erected at Frankfort. For years it has been a place of interest to visitors and is a remarkable piece of masonry. Apparently the stairway holds itself up without support, and just why it has strength to bear the weight of immense crowds has always been the subject of much speculation and comment. It was built about one hundred years ago by a French mason, who was a convict in the Penitentiary. The stone steps are placed one upon the other in arch fashion, but at such an unusual decline that all wonder why the whole thing does not tumble down at the least jar. The statement, however, that there is none other like it in this country is erroneous. The marble stairways in Girard College, and the "hanging stairway" of granite in the City Building at Philadelphia, are both of the same structure, the latter being the most remarkable in the world.

DON'T WAIT.

Take Advantage of Maysville Citizens' Experience Before It's Too Late.

When the back begins to ache Don't wait until backache becomes chronic; Till serious kidney troubles develop; Till urinary troubles destroy night's rest. Profit by a Maysville citizen's experience. Mrs. Elmer Bridges of 226 West Third street says:

"I learned of the great merit of Doan's Kidney Pills over a year ago while in Pittsburgh, Pa. The use of two boxes ended all symptoms of kidney trouble. I have told my friends of the remarkable value of this preparation and advise them to get it at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drugstore, corner of West Second street, and give it a trial."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

If those persons who buy goods on credit would pay for them as promised, there would be few failures among merchants.

For purposes of comparison The Louisville Herald prints the maximum prices as allowed in Indiana, and as provided for in the bills introduced at Frankfort on items relating to schoolbooks in universal use. They are worth notice:

It will be observed that a full set of these books under the Cantrill Bill, which has already passed the Senate and bids fair to pass the House, would cost fifty-nine cents more than in Indiana. Estimating that schoolbooks for the state will cost $500,000 a year, Kentucky children would have to pay at least $60,000 more a year for books than the same number of children in Indiana.

Political Pickings

GENERAL WOOD'S GRAFT.

Louisville Courier-Journal.

If General Wood has a proper care for his character and can defend his conduct in Cuba, he should promptly return to this country and meet the charges against him. The testimony of Army officers, including Brigadier and even Major Generals, to say nothing of the evidence of civilians of high standing, bears hard against him; and no specious plea by Secretary of War Root, or personal favoritism of the President can obliterate the impression on the public mind that the newly-fledged Major General has been guilty of "conduct unbecoming an officer," and that neither his military service nor his capacity entitles him to promotion over the heads of several hundred officers who outranked him.

To an innocent man, falsely accused, a public investigation and trial afford a shield and refuge. He should seek and not shun it. Whether General Wood was sent by the President to the Philippines, or went by his own request, it is quite certain that he knew an investigation was impending and that serious accusations against his personal honor had been made. The glowing dispatch describing his brilliant exploit in killing several hundred insurgents without losing a man looks very much like a massacre or a falsehood, and was naturally suggestive of a cooked-up exaggeration intended to influence the Senate committee and to secure his confirmation.

So far as we have observed there has been no denial either by his witnesses or his friends at court, that he accepted a silver service set from a corporation which was little if to any extent, removed from a gambling organization; that he peremptorily ordered the admittance of this "present" to Havana without the payment of the duty required by law; that he on other occasions misapplied public funds by violating the regulations directing their collection and expenditure; nor have we seen any denial of the statement of one witness that he collected from a corporation $8,000 belonging to a law firm in New York and failed to turn the amount over to the proper owners when it was demanded, or since.

GERMAN SYRUP.
We want to impress on our readers that Hoesche's German Syrup is positively the only preparation on the market today that does relieve and cure consumption. It contains the specifics, such as pure tar, extracts of gum, etc., which have been so highly indorsed for the cure of coughs, colds and consumption by the great medical congresses. The consumptive, whether his disease is in the throat or lungs, must have rest at night, and be free from the spasm of dry and racking cough in the morning. The diseased parts want rest, healing and soothing treatment, and the patient needs fresh air, good food, etc. German Syrup will give free and easy expectoration in the morning with speedy and permanent relief. Small bottles, 25c; regular size, containing nearly four times as much, 75c. At Henry W. Ray's Drugstore.

Captain Daniel G. Parr, one of Louisville's oldest and wealthiest citizens and a former river Captain, was found dead in bed by his daughter, Mrs. John H. Sale, at his home yesterday morning.

River News

The Boaz reached New Orleans with her big tow of Pittsburgh coal.

Snow in the mountains along the Upper Ohio is reported from four to six feet deep.

With the river still falling, many barges and boats in the Cincinnati harbor are left high and dry on the banks.

Thousands of Cincinnati sight-seers went to Coney Island Sunday to see the big gorge in the river, where the ice in some places is piled thirty feet.

Although the river situation is discouraging at present Captain Ed Howard of the Howard Shipyard Company at Jeffersonville is negotiating for many new boats and has several in the ways. When navigation opens up business will be lively for several months at least.

The Rivers and Harbors Committee of the House has set today as the time for a hearing on reports and recommendations relating to the improvement of the Ohio river. Representative Sherley will appear before the Committee and urge an appropriation by Congress for carrying out the improvements at Louisville which were recommended by the United States Board of Engineers.

The big distillery plant of Mihalovitch, Fletcher & Co., Cincinnati, was destroyed by fire yesterday; loss, $100,000.

The Flemingsburg Christian Church refuses to accept the resignation of Rev. G. H. C. Stoney, who contemplates going to Harvard.

Cured After Suffering 10 Years.
B. F. Hare, Supt. Miami Cycle & Mfg. Co. Middletown, O., suffered for ten years with dyspepsia. He spent hundreds of dollars for medicine and with doctors without receiving any permanent benefit. He says "One night while feeling exceptionally bad I was about to throw down the evening paper when I saw an item in the paper regarding the merits of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I concluded to try it and while I had no faith in it I felt better after the second dose. After using two bottles I am stronger and better than I have been in years, and I recommend Kodol Dyspepsia Cure to my friends and acquaintances suffering from stomach trouble." Sold by J. Jas. Insanity, Death or Health?

No. 2807 Locust Street, St. Louis, Mo., March 20, 1908.

I was a victim of sleeplessness and extreme nervousness for eighteen months, unable to get a proper night's rest and feeling tired and worn out continually. I was easily irritated and hysterical at the slightest provocation, but Wine of Cardui gave me great relief. Within a week after I began using it I had my first real good night's rest that I had had for months. My appetite was soon restored, my general system toned up and nervousness became a thing of the past. I am so pleased to acknowledge the great curative merit of your health giving medicine and gladly endorse it.

Harriet C. Best
CHAPELAIN, LADIES OF HONOR, No. 97.

WINE OF CARDUI

We want to call your attention to the complete and immediate relief Mrs. Best secured by taking Wine of Cardui. Within a week after she began taking Wine of Cardui, Mrs. Best had her first good night's rest for eighteen months. Her restlessness was caused by nervousness and Wine of Cardui, as the best menstrual regulator, has no superior in the world as a medicine to soothe a woman's nerves. Nervousness and hysteria are warnings of the approach of insanity and if relief is not secured the end can only be the asylum or the grave. With such an outlook as this before her, no suffering woman can reasonably refuse to give Wine of Cardui a trial. It brings a cure that thousands of women have sought for in vain. Will you secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today and start treatment?

All druggists sell $1.00 bottles Wine of Cardui.

BOARD OF TRADE

Addresses Itself to the Wide-Awake Merchants of Maysville

MAYSVILLE, KY., January 8, 1904.

To the Merchants of Maysville—Dear Sirs: On Saturday, February 20th, 1904, we have our Fifth Annual Tobacco Fair. The four which we have held in the past have proven to be very successful. They have attracted to our city the best element of all the surrounding country and a large representation from some of the principal cities of this state and Ohio. It has not only been a day of social pleasure, but a day which has brought customers to our city who have thronged our stores and gone away laden with goods from our counters. You all say, by no means let the season pass without a Tobacco Fair.

The question arises at this point, how much of a success would the Tobacco Fair be if no one displayed any more energy or interest in its promotion than you are now doing? How many farmers have you spoken to with reference to it? How many posters have you sent out? And yet you expect it to be a success.

The Tobacco Fair is "Our Fair." This appeal is to you to go to work and do your part toward making the Fifth Annual Tobacco Fair the greatest event in the history of Maysville. Plan some novel feature by which to advertise your business. Arrange to give some souvenir of the occasion which may be carried away by the visitors as a pleasant reminder of the event. Send premium lists out in all your letters. Yours, for success, JOHN DULEY, President Board of Trade.

Dislocated Her Shoulder.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Ferguson Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep which she had not done for several days. The son was so much pleased with the relief it gave his mother that he has since recommended it to many others. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

WHITE HOUSE CELLAR

New York Sun.

"What a magnifying glass is every pane of every window through which the proud American citizen looks into the White House!" I clip the following from an editorial in Saturday's Sun.

Now, it is very clear you have not visited the White House recently, or you would know you could not look through the windows or enter its doors. You would be permitted to enter the cellar, and nothing more. After an absence of several years I visited the Capital last week with some friends—and after showing them around through the public buildings and the Library of Congress, the most magnificent structure in the world, we were to finish our trip by a visit to the White House.

We walked up the stone steps, well worn by the tread of thousands of "the free and the brave" for years past, and to the door which I attempted to open and walk in as of yore; but alas! the old democratic style has been changed—the doorlatch does not hang out there; a man covered with gilt lace and brass buttons stopped us, saying, "You can't enter here, this is a private entrance."

"What?" said I. "cannot be admitted to the White House?"

"This is a private entrance," said he; "walk to those steps and go down to the cellar; there are rooms down there where you can be admitted."

We walked into the cellar, through several dark and dingy rooms, hang with old and battered portraits of departed ladies of the White House. In one room we found the walls covered with pictures of the present Executive in every possible position—afloat, on horse, on coach, tallyho, Rough Rider, etc. There was a large crowd of disappointed people in that cellar.

New York, January 3. W. Miss Nannie Bland, who has been so ill at Washington, is said to be improving.

The last few days have been very hard on the wheat.

Some people will cry out against the law's delays, and then seek to interfere with the law's execution. This is not reasonable; this is not wise.

The lungs are a part of one's body that should be protected above all others, as they are the most sensitive. Many Sudden Deaths.

Swamp-Root is a disease prevailing in this dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

GIVEN UP TO DIE.

But Our Great Cod Liver Oil Preparation—Vinol—Cured Her of Consumption.

Mrs. J. G. Brown of Anderson, Ind., writes: "Our daughter Mary was on the verge of the grave with consumption. Our family physician had given her up—said she could not possibly recover. She was so weak she could take only half a teaspoonful of nourishment at a time. We read an advertisement of Vinol, and decided to try it as a last resort. She has now taken eight bottles, and her health has been restored in a marvelous manner, and she is as well as ever she was. Words are inadequate to express our gratitude to you and your valuable remedy, and we hope that other dear ones may be saved as ours was."

MISS M. BROWN.

The reason that Vinol accomplishes such wonderful results in throat, bronchial and lung troubles is because it contains in a concentrated form all the vital principles of cod liver oil, but without a drop of oil to nauseate and upset the stomach and retard its medicinal value; the weakest stomach can retain it and it is delicious to the taste.
Vinol is the most valuable preparation of cod liver oil ever discovered, and we ask every person in Maysville who has a hard cold, hacking cough, throat or bronchial troubles to try Vinol on our guarantee to return your money if you are not satisfied with the results. J. C. Pecor, Druggist.

THAT'S THE LEDGER.

The Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage says—"A newspaper whose columns overflow with the advertisements of business men has more influence in attracting attention to and building up a city or town than any other agency that can be employed. People go where there is business. Capital and labor will locate where there is enterprising community. No power on earth is so strong to build up a town as newspapers well patronized, and this power should be appreciated."

The merchant who wishes to reach people who buy goods, puts his advertisement in a paper that people read; the merchant who throws his money away, gives his advertisement to the fakir who promises to put it on a card and hang it up on a street corner.
Not less than 5,000 people read THE LEDGER 312 days in the year. This makes a total of 1,560,000 readers in a year.
Do you want your name and business repeated that often within the next twelve months?

An enterprising photographer was out in mid-stream on the ice yesterday taking pictures. He did a thrifty business and pocketed many a quarter from those of a romantic turn of mind.

Mr. John O'Harran, while on his way to this side of the river yesterday morning, fell on the ice and broke his arm at the wrist. It's only been about three months since he fell at his home in Aberdeen and broke three of his ribs. Mr. O'Harran has the sympathy of his friends in his misfortune.

Why Not Begin the New Year Dan Cohen's Great Western Shoe Store?

BY BUYING SHOES AT

When you feel your feet so comfortably clad, and realize how heavy your purse still is, you will feel new "swap" and "go," heart lighter, head clearer and in your heart only pity for the "other fellow," who is still shambling around in his old shoes, with his head down and his courage at an ebb—proportionately low. Do your best to make it so, and let us help you, and the New Year Will Be Happy.

Yours for 1904,

W. H. MEANS, MANAGER DAN COHEN'S GREAT WESTERN SHOE STORE!
